“ The trading & information platform for feed, food and pharma industry ”

Kemiex is a specialized procurement, trading and information platform for raw materials in the health and nutrition industries for humans and animals.

Kemiex connects its users to a network of reliable companies and provides unique market data & insights.

Marketplace. Procurement. Insights.

“Kemiex has found a great way of structuring feed additives’ trade via an online platform. So far, it has been a great addition to our more traditional and personal way of approaching our markets. The documentary compliance, credit security via Atradius and markets insights provided are really added values which raises them above and beyond any other platforms or live brokers. We are very happy to support Kemiex in their future growth and development.”

Tim Lemeer - Vice President - Barentz Animal Nutrition

“Kemiex has introduced a complete new way of buying and selling through its innovative platform. It creates interesting opportunities to find new suppliers and customers worldwide. I believe this is the future of online trading”

Bart Van den Berghe - Director - Vitafor N.V.

“A pioneering software to consolidate raw material quotations, negotiate with existing suppliers and connect to new suppliers from the Kemiex network. It is very convenient, efficient and I receive surprisingly fast responses from high-quality companies. Strategic market data is also quite insightful.”

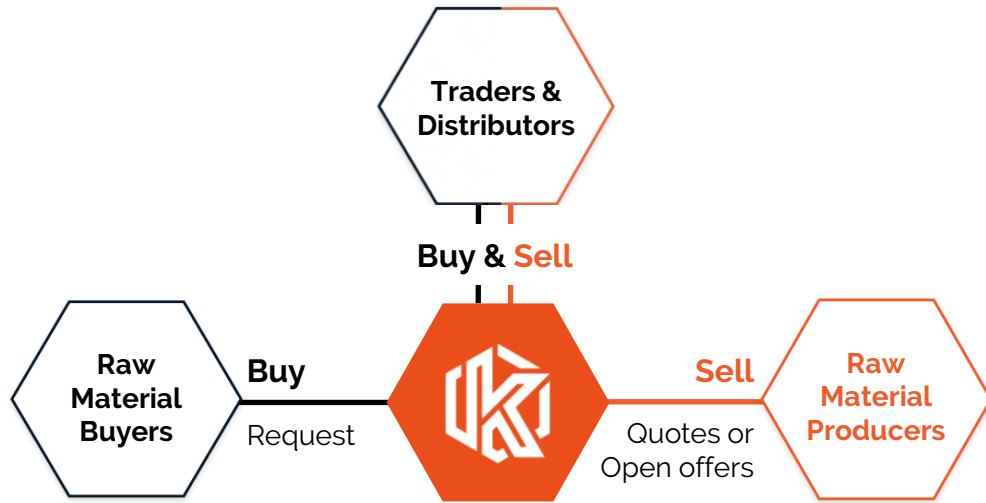

Saad Oulad - Trader – Quimidroga S.A.

“Kemiex is a very important tool for us when it comes to finding new suppliers and aggregating quotes. It offers us price evolution of several products, which helps us to evaluate market tendencies. On the other side, industry news are a great complement to this tool”

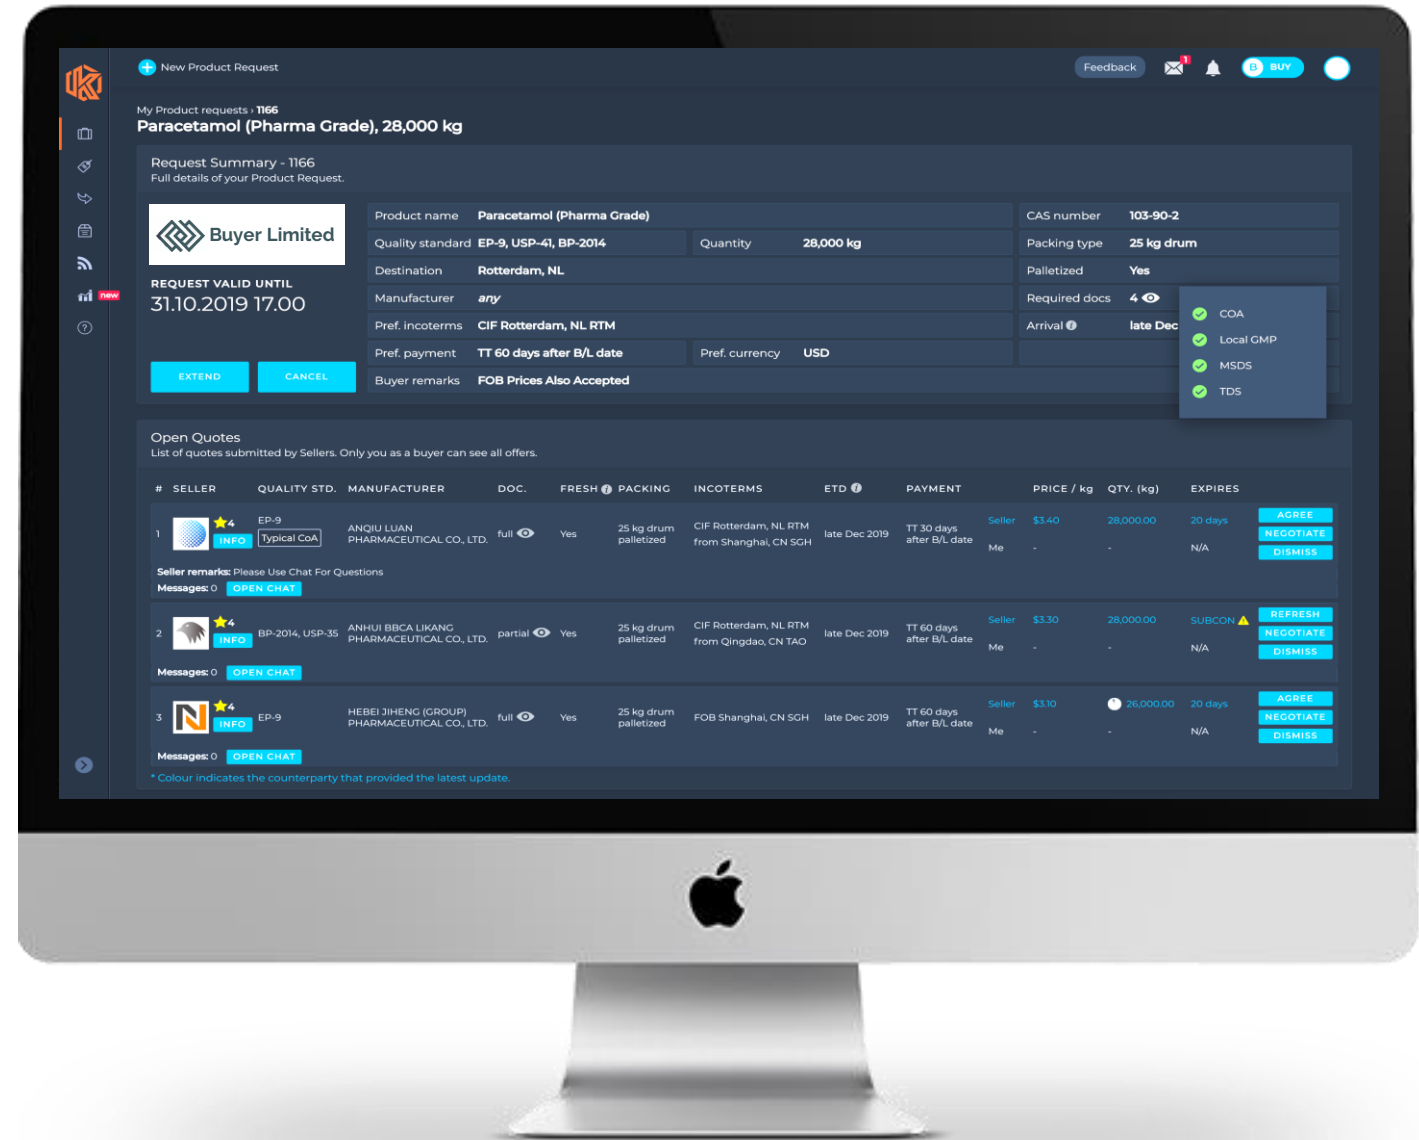

Ricardo Ferreira - Purchasing Manager - Vetanco S.A.
