

Hovione

In it for life

The Leader
in Spray Drying

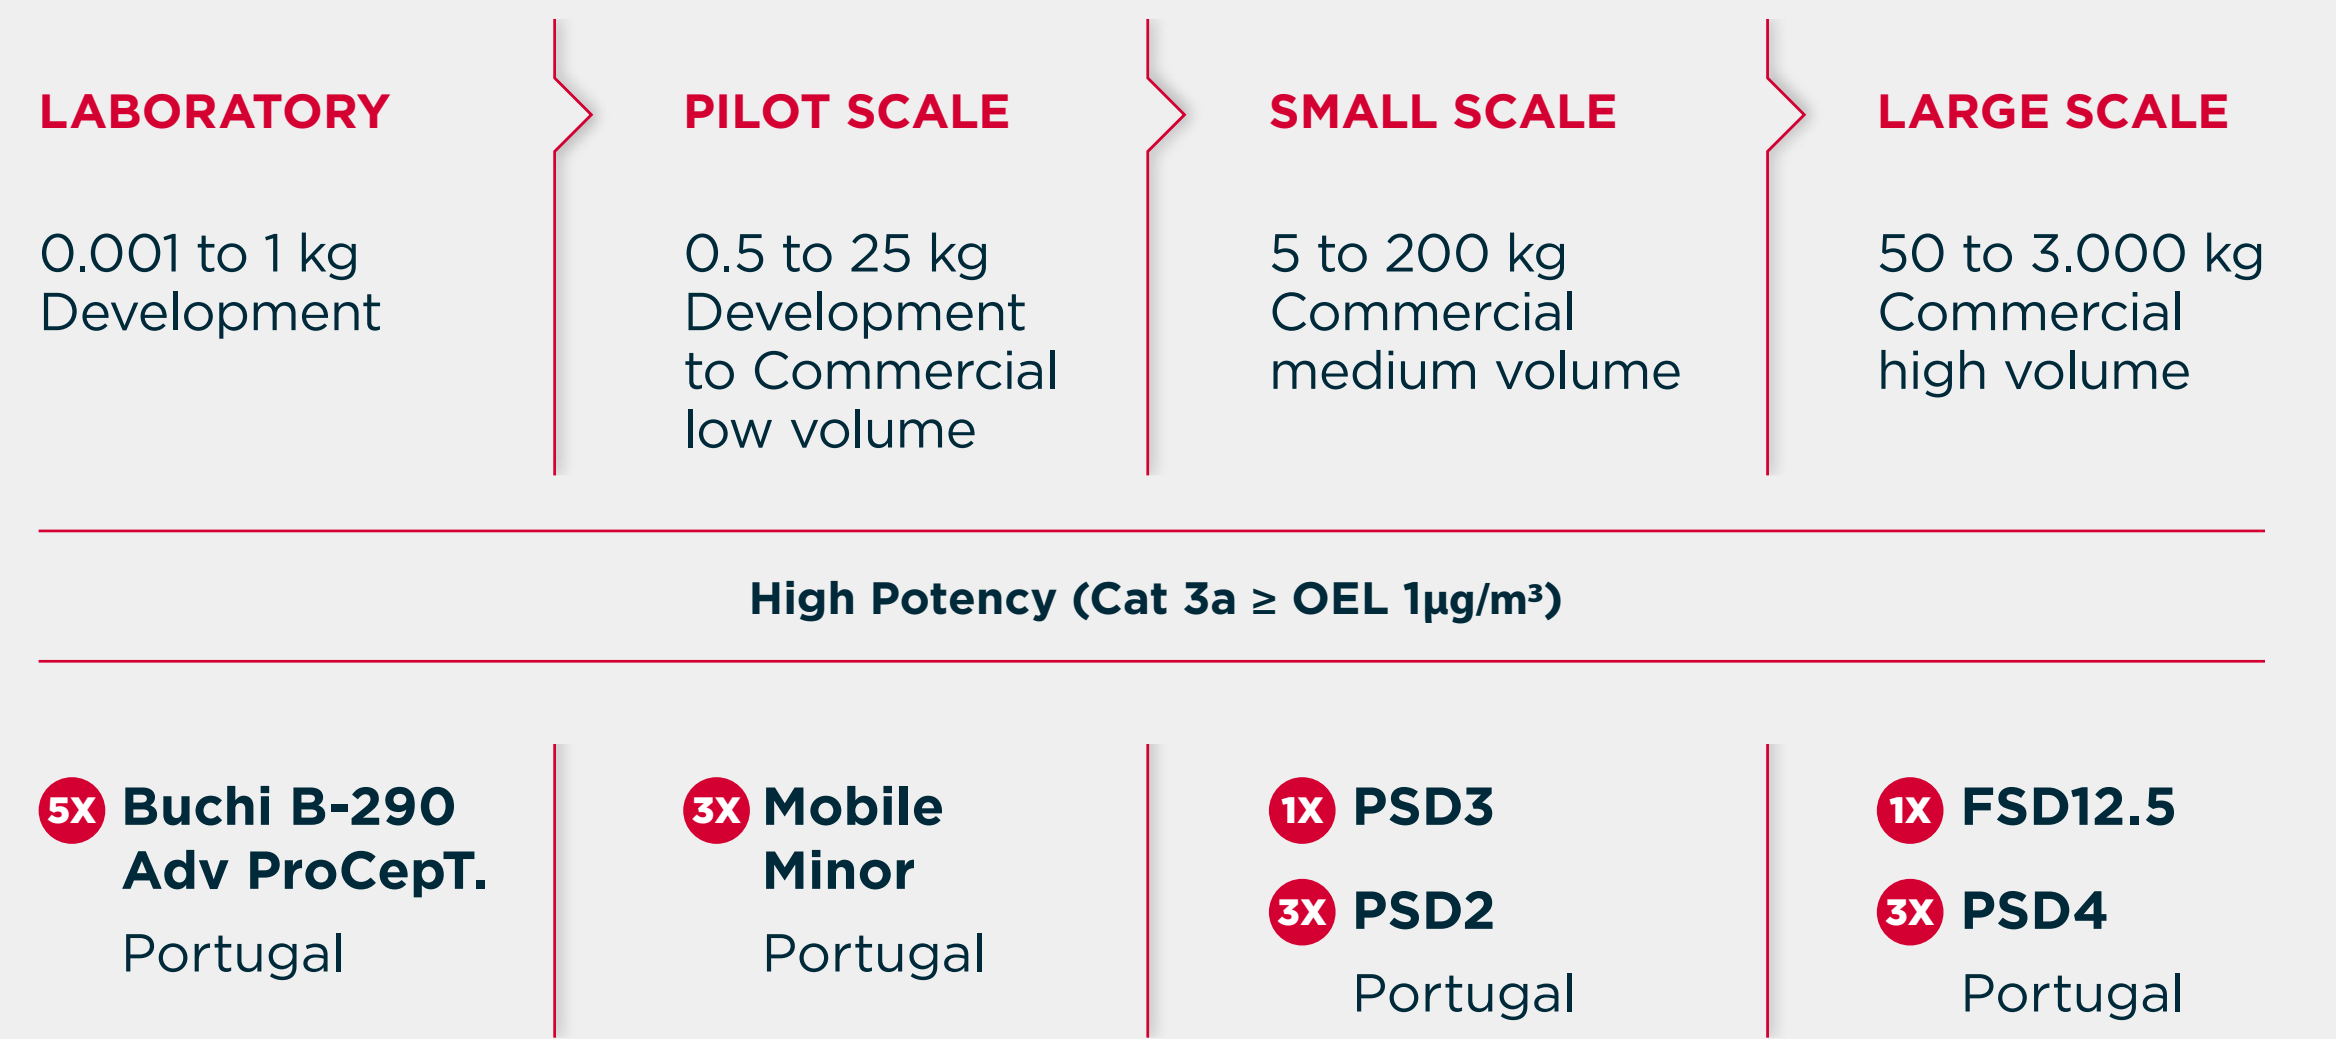

With the largest capacity, the best scale-up science and the most experienced team, Hovione secures your project from development to commercial and accelerates your time to market.

- Solubility enhancement
- Amorphous solid dispersions
- Inhalation
- Controlled release
- Development by Design™

Hovione operates on State-of-Art facilities producing different grades of products for all types of therapeutic applications. We do it safely, with efficiency and quality according to the GMP's.

Hovione Loures has the most comprehensive pharmaceutical Spray Drying capacity in the world, enabling us to produce from grams up to more than 3.000kg a batch.

We are increasing our production capacity day by day to meet our customers demand, using the latest technology developments and always respecting the environment.